Some particulars:

Our rubber stamps are shipped “ready to use” and mounted on wooden maple blocks. At this time, Red Handed Rubber Stamps only offers mounted rubber stamps. Currently, RHRubber will only ship merchandise to clients within the United States.

Payment and Returns:

Payment is due within 14 business days of invoicing; a receipt will be sent to you with your mailed order.

We prefer payment via VISA or MasterCard, but will happily accept personal checks too. Please be aware that if you pay for your order via personal check, your order will take extra time to get to you, as we wait for payment to clear before shipping your order. Also: if you will be paying via personal check, please get in touch via email/snail mail/telephone in order to work out shipping details and a final price quote.

Shipping costs will be actual UPS, FedEx or USPS charges. Once payment for your order has been received and cleared, your order will be shipped from our San Francisco studio.

The Red Handed Rubber team takes pride in each rubber stamp we produce. Should you find that there is a problem with your order, please get in touch with us as soon as possible. All outgoing merchandise is checked for quality and “stamp-ability” before shipping, but sometimes surprises happen!

Prices listed:

Prices listed on our Spring 2016 PDF catalog are current through June 30th, 2016. Sales tax is applied for orders shipped within the state of California.
